The La Porte Chapter of DeMolay marked two firsts Saturday night, Sept. 16, with the presentation of the Zerubbabel Key to "Dad" George H. Sharp Sr. and the bestowing of the Chevalier degree on John B. Welch.

Only one Zerubbabel Key is presented in each DeMolay Chapter, recognizing the person most instrumental in getting the chapter established. Ted Abbott, DeMolay District governor from District 15, which encompasses the Galveston area, made the presentation to Sharp in honor of his work in bringing DeMolay to La Porte.

The Chevalier is the highest degree in DeMolay and Welch is the first member of the La Porte Chapter to be awarded the honor.

He is the newly installed master councilor for the La Porte Chapter, and was the chapter's first master councilor. The Chevalier was presented in a special Chevalier Investiture lead by Leonard B. Davis, DeMolay district governor from District 14, which encompasses the Golden Triangle area.

Others participating in the Chevalier Investiture were Robert K. Hinton, James L. Knoedler, Thomas C. Tucker, John
